CHRIST BEARERS!

As Christians, we are tasked with being Christ-bearers in the world. We are asked to love, as Jesus himself loves. We are to respond to hate with compassion, empathy, and mercy. We are to lend to others, expecting nothing in return. We are to forgive others, even as the "other" persecutes and tortures us. Adopting this way of living is not easy. Perhaps this week we might begin by taking one area in our lives where we have been focused on fairness, on loving others with the same amount of love they show us, and instead strive to personify the abundant, illogical, joyful love of Christ.
