Diocesan Assessment Appeal

This year's theme for the Diocesan Appeal is “Restore to me the joy of your Salvation and uphold me with a willing spirit”. Psalm 51:14. The Season of Lent has approached us, and I cannot think of a better way to serve our Loving Master than contributing to the 2023 Diocesan Appeal.

To date, St. Isaac Jogues has collected $17,450 with 52 gifts, which is 95% of our Appeal.

Blessed Sacrament has collected $14,975 with 44 gifts, which is 49% of our Appeal.

St. James has collected $1,963 with 7 gifts, which is 40% of our Appeal.

We are stewards of the Roman Catholic faith, working together to serve our Master up here in God's Country, the beautiful Adirondacks. We look for 100% participation not equal sacrifice. The amount not collected will be taken out of our operating funds, putting a strain on our budget.

If you would mail a check payable to “Diocesan Appeal” to 40 N. Main Avenue, Albany, NY 12203 or go online at www.thediocesanappeal.org

St. James' Assessment is $5,000

St. Isaac Jogues' Assessment is $18,357

Bl. Sacrament's Assessment is $31,043
