Recognizing God in Ordinary Moments

Sometimes we need a dose of healthy skepticism. Do you see some of the claims on the internet, in social media, or even on the cover of supermarket tabloids? If we are not careful, we can easily be led astray.

However, when we find ourselves skeptical all the time, unable to trust anyone or anything, we will find ourselves lost and bewildered.

Sometimes the biggest obstacle to a stewardship way of life is lack of trust. This is true for individuals as well as parish communities. Do we believe that God will provide for our needs? Do we believe that if we give it all away, we will receive even more in abundance? Do we believe that there is true freedom in complete surrender?

Many will say that the principles of a stewardship way of life sound good spirituality and are inspiring. But when really faced with the tough decisions, they will fall back on placing trust in themselves, material good, or money. Are we true disciples and good stewards as we claim? Where do you place your trust? Have you chosen a path where you are in or are still keeping something for yourself because you just aren't sure all this talk of "consider the lilies" is real or just pretty words on a page?

Showing kindness to others is a way to follow Jesus' command to love our neighbors.

"Do your little bit of good where you are; it's those little bits of good put together that overwhelm the world." - Archbishop Desmond Tutu

"The test of our progress is not whether we add more to the abundance of those who have much; it is whether we provide enough for those who have too little." - Franklin D. Roosevelt

"How do we change the world? One random act of kindness at a time." - Morgan Freeman

"Love and kindness are never wasted. They always make a difference. They bless the one who receives them, and they bless you, the giver." - Barbara De Angelis

"Wherever there is a human being, there is an opportunity for kindness." - Seneca

When I was young, I admired clever people. Now that I am old, I admire kind people." - Abraham Joshua Heschel
